I'm project manager for City Loop, a redesign of the playground at City Park. We are reaching out to the local community to get feedback from the public on our proposed designs for the playground. Here's a link to some information on the project:

We are looking for 1 or 2 parents active in your school and community to participate in a series stakeholder meetings about the design in February/March, and give us feedback on what the community would and would not like to see in the new playground.

Could the PTSA present this opportunity at your next meeting and see if there is any interest? People can contact me directly for more information and if they are interested in helping us out, I'll put them on the invite list. If there are more than 1-2 folks interested, can the PTSA select someone?

Feel free to call or email me to discuss further, and I appreciate your time and assistance!
